Park Interpreter

Massachusetts State Parks and Recreation

LOCATION:

The Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation, Division of State Parks and Recreation, is a major steward of the commonwealth's natural and cultural resources. The DCR State Parks Division is responsible for over 440,000 acres in its 440 parks and properties state-wide. The state parks are home to significant natural resources, endangered landscapes, cultural and historic landmarks, and offer tremendous recreational and educational opportunities.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Park Interpreters perform various interpretive, educational and administrative tasks in the operation of visitor services and interpretation. Tasks include staffing an information desk/kiosk, providing visitor information and orientation, researching, developing and presenting a variety of interpretive and recreational programs that reflect the natural, cultural and historical themes of the park. Coordination of special events and programs independently or in partnership with other public or private organizations is required.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must be at least eighteen years old, possess a basic knowledge of natural and cultural history, have experience working with the public, solid communications skills with the ability to follow oral and written instructions, and the ability to work in a team setting. Current valid driver's license and reliable transportation required.

EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

Most positions begin early to mid May and end between early September and mid October. Park Interpreters work a forty-hour week (which includes nights, weekends, and holidays). The salary is $487.79/week. Employees are paid bi-weekly. Benefits may be available for long-term positions. Uniforms and training are provided, park housing is not.
